CALL TO WRITERS

The Bridge is looking for people who speak and/or write with compassion on topics concerning Social Justice and Peace.

This year we hope to make “The Bridge” the path which unites students from any and all disciplines. We hope this newsletter will be a place to communicate our collective passion for Social Justice and Peace.

The Bridge is a chance to speak up and share your ideas, beliefs, and/or life experiences with the King’s, UWO, and London Social Justice Community. We all want to know what’s on your mind!

Articles can be submitted in the form of:

-Journal reflections- Visions for political nuance- Excerpts from formal papers--
—Poetry— Sketches— Book reviews—
— Art/events/music/activism reviews and advertisements—
—and/or Summaries of what an organization you love does. —

If you have any ideas for an article, we love to hear what you want to read about.

This is your paper.

Submissions can come in the form of articles sized
100 to 500 words

If you prefer to be given an assignment, we are full idea

Send your submissions or questions to:

Unity, Justice, Empathy and Compassion will sustain us all.

A Call for Experiential Peaces!

Send us an article which focuses on your experiential travels while tying in your education and emphasizing on your learning experience.

Please try to thread in the application of the theories you've learned while teaching us all how that education has influenced your experience.

It will be an awesome way to encourage other students to explore an education not always taught in the classroom. We all know that some of the best education is the kind that is not paid for.

Be free to write in any way that you feel best represents you as a student and a teacher.

Submissions can come in the form of articles sized

Send your submissions or questions to:

Unity, Justice, Empathy, Compassion and Love will sustain us all.

So spread the word to anyone who is like minded!

Thank you dearly and sincerely,
